

What a day! Gabe and I have been working feverishly for the last 5 weeks to get the first Joomla Milwaukee meeting organized. It looks like our hard work paid off as over 35 people turned up. There were people of all interests and experience levels and were it not for the robust participation of the group, I might have thought folks just showed up for the free lunch (thanks Arc Technology for the grub and Joe for the great blog post ).

Not only did people participate with questions, we also had lots of people volunteer to talk at the next meeting. Dan Knauss, Simon Prosser and Jamie Schmid volunteered to organize the upcoming meetings and coordinate the speakers. Nice one guys! You can read the full meeting summary here

I can't wait for the next meeting on Feb 26: same bat time, same bat channel .
